Candidate for Council District 2

DAVE PERRY

My election to the Council will bring a new perspective to Sandy.

We can't afford to spend, spend, spend, based on State and Federal grants anymore. Grants often come with some kind of unfavorable mandate. They should be accepted only when no strings are attached.

We need citizen input and help.

I propose volunteerism in our neighborhoods, schools, and government. The economic recovery is a mirage caused by the misguided Federal stimulus program. Tough times are ahead. We need to fortify our city to prepare our families and future generations for the economy, against attacks, and/or natural disasters. The city's first-responders (police and fire) will not be able to adequately handle a large scale disaster. We must ensure Sandy is safe and secure now and in the future.

Many citizens feel their voices are not being heard and city leadership is unresponsive to their views. I have served as a mediator between city administration and citizens on the Draper Planning Commission for 3 years (chaired for 1 year) and the City Council for 2 years.

I will listen.

My philosophy is that City Government needs to be run with the same maximum efficiency required for private businesses. As owner and administrator of several businesses in the valley over the past 35 years, I understand this concept. We must initiate an assertive program to bring both large and small businesses together to ensure the health and viability of both.

We need to carefully review our priorities and assets, and reset our expenditures to better align with our revenues. We can do better!

I will be your voice.

Please visit www.ElectDavePerry.com for more information.

Candidate for Council District 2

DENNIS TENNEY (Incumbent)

IN TOUGH TIMES, STAY WITH EXPERIENCE!

During the last few years, by working together as a community and city government, we've been able to accomplish the following:

1 - SANDY CITY HAS KEPT PROPERTY TAXES LOW!

In fact, we have reduced taxes by more than 10% and we have not raised property taxes for more than twenty years! I am determined to do everything possible to help keep our property taxes low and support Sandy City in providing the most cost effective delivery of city government services in the most respectful and responsive manner possible.

2 - WE HAVE ENHANCED OUR QUALITY OF LIFE.

We have opened and improved new urban trails, enlarged the capacity of the Amphitheater, added Movies-In-The-Park, built a new world class soccer stadium and supported improvement of the quality of the Sandy Library. We have also created a friendly environment for businesses to grow as well. I pledge to continue to do my part to help Sandy continue to be the most desirable place to live, work and enjoy life.

3 - TOGETHER WE HAVE HELPED REDUCE CRIME AND MAKE OUR NEIGHBORHOODS SAFER.

By working together as concerned neighbors with Sandy City's Police Department, crime in many areas has gone down. We've added new police officers and most of our fire fighters are now also cross trained as paramedics. I'll continue to support safe neighborhoods, strong support for our police officers and fire fighters, tough drug interdiction and close cooperation with the Canyons School District programs as well.

During the last four years I have tried to be a good listener, consensus builder and voice of reason. There is still much to be done. I respectfully ask for your vote Tuesday, November 8th. Thank you! Dennis Tenney 801-566-3575, dennistenney@gmail.com

(unopposed)*

CHRIS McCANDLESS (Incumbent)

As a Sandy City Councilman for six years, Chris McCandless has helped focus the vision for the future on business growth, jobs, and quality of life, while helping Sandy be one of the most financially sound cities in the state.

As a business owner, managing large-scale real estate projects for 25 years, Chris understands the challenges of business. His expertise is pivotal, since he estimates that 70 percent of Council decisions involve real estate. This expertise has helped in the relocation of several businesses to Sandy, including Workers Compensation Fund (290 jobs), and a major sporting goods retailer (430 jobs). He has supported the construction of other significant community venues, which have brought visitors and increased the city's tax base. Chris founded a tourism committee to attract winter visits to Sandy and is now advocating for expansion in Sandy's central business district and enhancement of its mass transportation, which will protect the tax base.

Chris serves in many civic areas, such as the Jordan River Commission, which seeks to promote and preserve that natural resource. He served as a youth and Boy Scout leader for 20 years, and has been an active member of Rotary International, the Jordan Education Foundation, Sandy Honorary Colonels, and is a founding member of the Sandy Sister Cities Committee and Canyons Education Foundation. In 2002, he was named the Humanitarian of the Year, by Sandy City, and in 2009, received Sandy's Noel Bateman Award.

An avid hiker, skier, and fly fisherman, Chris is passionate about protecting our parks and trails and preserving our canyons. He has lived in Sandy for over 35 years and is married to Susan McCandless, a teacher in the Jordan School District; they have two children, Meagan, who recently graduated from Utah State University, and Sean attending the University of Utah.

Candidate for City Council At-Large

STEVE FAIRBANKS (Incumbent)

I first ran for Sandy City Council as “The man without a plan,” because I was driven only by my desire to serve, not by any pet issues or anger. I had been involved in our community for years, and I enjoyed it. I enjoy it still. I love Sandy City and it’s citizenry. It is a great place to live.

City government is a reflection of the community, and we try hard to live up to Sandy’s standards. Consider what we’ve accomplished in an extremely challenging economy. We recently passed our 25th straight budget without increasing the property tax levied by the City. Yes, we have had to make judicious cuts and find ways to make up for a tremendous shortfall in sales tax. Our City employees have worked very hard to do more with less, and the City has done just that. Despite three brutal economic years, we’ve not cut services, nor had massive layoffs, nor have we taken money out of our rainy day fund. Very few communities can say that. Sandy can, because when times were good, we consciously planned for the inevitable day they wouldn’t be.

My personal approach to city government is to look for realistic compromise to solve our challenges within the boundaries of council authority. As your representative on the City Council, I pledge to continue to focus on our core responsibilities, put first things first, and take a reasoned and dispassionate approach to issues. I hope you will continue to allow me that opportunity.

Thank you!

Steve Fairbanks

Candidate for City Council At-Large

GARY FORBUSH

For No More Than Two Council Terms, I Will:

Encourage job creation, economic diversity and redevelopment to broaden and strengthen our tax base

- The diversity and health of our business community allows us to provide the services and quality of life Sandy residents rely on. I will actively work to bring leading edge companies and higher paying job opportunities. Sandy must initiate aggressive programs to bring small and large, local and national businesses to enhance the health and livability of our great city.

Value public servants and strengthen public safety -

Elected officials must value, work to retain and fairly compensate the professional men and women responsible for our public service and help them do their jobs to ensure Sandy is as safe and secure as possible. I will work to reduce turnover and increase job satisfaction amongst public servants.

Expand arts, culture and recreation programs through private funding

Arts, culture and recreation contribute to the quality of our lives and must be actively supported by more than just tax dollars of citizens and patron fees. I will actively pursue a variety of additional private funding options that will allow us to better support and expand our options in Sandy for arts, culture, and community recreational opportunities.

I enthusiastically ask for your vote and support as I work to offer a fresh face and a new perspective on the critical issues that face us during this time of continued economic uncertainty. I will work as an independent voice, as one who is not tightly aligned to any special interest group or politician. My loyalties will lie with the residents of Sandy, and I will work to be accessible, honest and accountable to all those that I represent as I work to build a better Sandy for us all

DAVID KINGSBURY

David Kingsbury is the candidate for Sandy City Council at Large. He is a married father of four with a passion for family and his community. David has been active in Sandy serving on the board for the Community Development Block Grant, Sandy Pride Day as well as lead volunteer and fundraiser for children with disabilities. David received his bachelor degree in Business Management in Salt Lake City and holds a director position for a leading Utah manufacture. This experience enables him to balance budgets and make decision for the good of both Sandy citizens and local business.

David Kingsbury candidate for city Council at Large said, "When elected by the community, it is the duty of the candidate to serve only the community and not the Special Interest that fund their campaigns. This is especially important because most of what City Council does is related to land use. As an elected councilman you can depend on me to vote against raising taxes, always keeping a balanced budget, the creation of jobs, and listening to my fellow citizens of Sandy.

Candidate for City Council At-Large

LINDA MARTINEZ SAVILLE (Incumbent)

I am Linda Martinez Saville, I have lived in Sandy for 52 years. My husband, Gary and I have been married for 42 years and we have four children and four beautiful grandchildren. As Executive Director of the Sandy Club, "A Safe Place for Boys & Girls," I've worked for 18 years to create a safe place for your children to go during non-school hours and a place for families to go if they need help during a family crisis.

It is a pleasure to represent you on the Sandy City Council. I do it simply because I care about the people who live in our great city. The decisions made by the City Council, such as improved roads, taxes, public safety, recreation and emergency preparedness affect everyone. Each decision has a powerful effect on our citizens and I am committed to making the kinds of decisions that will make life better for you and your families. I stand on my record and promise to continue listening to your viewpoint. I will continue to be open-minded and fair by communicating and telling the truth.

As an At-Large City Council member, I represent every person who lives in Sandy. It is an honor to once again seek the opportunity to serve in that position. If I am re-elected, I will continue working hard for you and promise that I will be an honest and dedicated servant to all of Sandy's citizens.

I will soon be walking through Sandy neighborhoods and I'm excited to meet with you and your families. Once again, I ask for your support and especially for your, VOTE.
